Kensington and Chelsea Council announces how permanent homes will be allocated to Grenfell residents

Kensington and Chelsea Council has today outlined its approach to allocating permanent homes to Grenfell Tower and Grenfell Walk residents.

Newly built permanent housing is now available to residents of Grenfell Tower and Grenfell Walk. You will be able to choose where you live and will not be forced to accept an offer of social housing if you don't wish to. You will only move to a permanent home if you are happy with it.

Once the initial twelve month occupancy period is over and if you are a former council tenant, you will not pay any more rent than you paid at Grenfell Tower or Grenfell Walk, even if you are rehoused to a larger home.

If you did not hold a council tenancy for a flat in Grenfell Tower or Grenfell Walk, the rent you will pay will remain at the social rent level.

This new policy sits alongside a number of Government commitments which state that if you are a former resident of Grenfell Tower, or Grenfell

Walk, you will not have to pay for rent or core utility bills within the first year of accepting an offer of Stage two temporary or permanent housing.

Alongside the Government's contribution of £5,000, plus £500 for each household member aged 16 or over, households will also receive a £10,000 Fresh Start grant from the Kensington and Chelsea Foundation.

Kensington and Chelsea Council has issued letters to all affected residents, which you should have now received, outlining how both the Government and the Council's permanent rehousing plan will work for you. This includes details on how Stage two temporary accommodation can be converted into permanent housing where possible, if you prefer.

NHS update

In response to the needs of patients, NHS partners in West London have set up a multi-disciplinary health outreach team to support patients, families and neighbours affected by the tragedy.

The team is currently located at the Grenfell Assistance Centre, and is able to provide emotional support and physical checks. The health team is also able to signpost to GP services and more specialist mental health services.

The health outreach team is able to visit you at your place of residence or at another location of your choosing, such as a local community centre.

Non-urgent referrals can be made to the outreach team by calling 07712 231 133. This is a direct line to the team at the Grenfell Assistance Centre, who will organise a non-urgent visit. The team can visit the patient on the day of the referral or the following day. Alternatively, referrals can be emailed to cnw-tr.westway@nhs.net

The first port of call for physical, emotional or mental health needs for any resident should be your own GP. Your GP will provide the all-important continuity of care, and is able to signpost to more specialist services.

Local GP practices are well placed to support people with emotional and mental health needs with an enhanced service in place.

If you do not have a GP, you can register for one online at www.nhs.uk by entering your postcode. If you do not have access to the internet, please call 020 8962 4600 and a member of the team will help you. The line is open Monday to Friday from 9am to 5pm.

Through the NHS 111 service, GP appointments are also available if needed at the St Charles Centre for Health and Wellbeing Integrated Care Centre, Exmoor Street, London W10 6DZ. Those requiring an urgent mental health response should call 0800 0234 650.

Health visitors are also contacting all displaced families with young children.

Health update

Air quality figures available online

Monitoring from Public Health England (PHE) shows that the risk to people's health from air pollution around the site continues to be low and no asbestos has been detected.

Air quality monitors were installed in the immediate area of Grenfell Tower, with additional equipment being put in to support ongoing monitoring. Chemicals produced when the Grenfell Tower fire was burning will not be present now.

Following discussions with local residents, PHE has published a report containing the air quality data from around the site. The report contains data tables, graphs and photographs of where the equipment is based, alongside an explanation of the data. The report will be updated on a regular basis. You can read the report online at: www.gov.uk/government/publications/environmental-monitoring-following-the-grenfell-tower-fire

Asbestos

Public Health England (PHE) is reassuring the public there is no increased presence of asbestos in the air in the area around Grenfell Tower.

Water quality

Drinking water quality has not been impacted by the fire and tap water is safe to drink and use as normal.

More advice from Public Health England can be found online at www.gov.uk/government/news/public-health-advice-following-the-grenfell-tower-fire

Housing update

Finding housing solutions that work for everyone directly affected by the Grenfell Tower fire remains our absolute priority and we are working hard to achieve this.

Offers of temporary accommodation are being made on a daily basis, but we know that families will have concerns around this process and the idea of accepting a temporary home. So far, 169 offers of accommodation have been made, 40 offers have been accepted and 11 households rehoused.

For some people, it's still too soon to make such a major decision. For others, there are all sorts of considerations to take into account, such as the needs of elderly relatives, proximity to schools, and dealing with historical overcrowding. Choosing a temporary home for families that have undergone unimaginable loss and trauma is a big decision, and we are at pains to ensure they have the time to select a home that is right for them at a time that is right for them.

Government has given commitments to help reassure families that:

- their needs are paramount, all other considerations are secondary to these
- their rent will not increase and the same terms and conditions of their previous home at Grenfell Tower or Grenfell Walk will be maintained
- they will have lifetime security of tenure
- they will not be forced to stay in temporary accommodation on a long-term basis
- accepting an offer of temporary accommodation does not mean that they lose priority for a permanent home
- no one has to accept a particular property and not accepting a property does not mean that they will be made intentionally homeless
- temporary homes will be rent and utility bill free for 12 months
- for some cases, if they like their temporary home, there is the potential for it to become their permanent home (this will be discussed when the home is offered to them).

More information is available on the housing line on 020 7361 3008.

Frequently asked questions

Will victims have to pay for outstanding utility bills?

The Government and utility companies have announced a package of support for Grenfell victims across energy, water and telecommunications. This includes suppliers agreeing to write off outstanding utility bills for victims of the fire, and the support comes on top of the £5 million fund to pay for emergency supplies, food, clothes and other costs. Further details can be found online at goo.gl/yhcniU

Will my eligibility for benefits be affected if I receive the £5,500?

The Department for Work and Pensions has said that your income-related benefits won't be affected by payments from the fund. Other benefits, such as Personal Independence Payments, won't be affected either and any payments from the emergency fund will not be taxed.
